CPT Prayer Focus: Pray for the speedy resolve on the many minor construction issues that seem to plague our project.

Saturday, September 17 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. WFMC Sanctuary

The intention of the event is to bring together Anglo and Arabic followers of Christ to learn from one another and to enjoy a cross-cultural worship and educational experience.

Contrary to what much of the media would have the world believe, all persons of middle-eastern descent are not Muslims. Many around our world worship and sing the songs of Jesus Christ.

The music will be led by the Promise Team, a group of young people of middle eastern origin, assembled from many different churches in southern California, and led by popular Arabic Christian singer LouLou Samir. Promise Team was created to communicate God's word through worship and music activities and to encourage the Arabic Church around the world.

Our speaker will be Rev. Jaffar (also known as Jacob), who left Islam to follow Jesus Christ in 1986. Jacob was called to serve the Lord by reaching Muslims with the news of Jesus, and to protect believers from the false teachings of Islam. He is a sought after speaker, evangelist, and a host of his own world-wide television ministry which targets Muslim viewers. He has led many Muslims to Christ and attempts to teach believers of all backgrounds how to defend their faith and beliefs, and how to effectively deliver the message of salvation in Christ to Muslims.

We need more volunteers to help with the youth meals ministry in providing either food or supplies.

If you can help with:

 Tuesday Youth Prayer Breakfast, please contact Cheryl Faul, 865-622-1756.

 Wednesday Night Youth Dinners, please contact Diane Muñoz, 740-0892. Thank you!

YOUTH GROUP MEALS

Handbell Choirs: Did you know that each person in a handbell choir is important? Each bell needs a ringer and each ringer plays a specific note, not duplicated by anyone else. We need you! Help us have full handbell choirs this year. You'll have fun making music and leading our church in worship several times a year. Choirs for all ages and abilities are available. Questions? ANNOUNCEMENTS

GOD'S TITHES AND OUR OFFERINGS

Every time we give anything to the Lord, we are declaring our trust in Him, and in essence, the more we give financially, relative to our own wealth, the more we are trusting Him. That's why Jesus pointed out to His first disciples the woman who gave only two copper coins. She gave all she had to live on, which meant, she was trusting completely in the Lord to provide for her. Jesus celebrates that kind of complete and utter trust whenever He sees it, even in us.
