HOPE IS FRAGILE, FAITH IS NOT.

Ethan Goforth

Because of our faith, Christ has brought us into this place of undeserved privilege where we now stand, and we confidently and joyfully look forward to sharing God's glory. Romans 5:2

It's easy to question our faith when our hopes that we have planned for do not happen. We might even question our faith altogether. I would suggest a different angle...if our Faith is "who" instead of a "what."

Let me explain, as the two men were walking on the road, a stranger appears. Now they'd been followers of Jesus for some time and had seen the teachings and miracles but in 3 days, they were already questioning if it was all true.

This stranger(Jesus) begins to ask them what they are talking about. Surprised no doubt by this they are like "how do you not know what we are talking about?! Everyone is talking about it?! All we had "hoped for" wasn't as it seems.."

You see all they'd hoped for, didn't come to pass... the way they had "hoped" it or planned it... BUT.. Jesus walked along with them and broke bread with them and "their eyes were opened!" Their Faith met their hope! Faith isn't fragile or broken or wrong...Faith is Jesus!

Our hope cannot be if not found in our Faith! Let our "hope" be informed by our "Faith." Let Faith forever instruct the finite. Things we hope for may not come true. In fact, they probably won't. Yet if we focus on that too much, we miss all the things He is giving to us that we didn't even ask for. Yes we may suffer, but in Him, the suffering can be beautiful and purposeful. He's always working. Faith is always perfect. Because Faith is a "who" and that "who" is Jesus.

NEWSBOYS RESTART

{by James Evans}

Newsboys Restart features a ton of great songs including "Fishers of Men", which is one of my favorite songs. It was also used as our camp theme song in 2017.

SPOTLIGHT ON YOUTH: NEW 6TH GRADERS

WELCOME TO YOUTH GROUP!

LOVES art, particularly drawing (though she is willing to try any media) and wants to be an artist when she grows up. She also enjoys reading.

Likes to read, take walks, ride horses, ride her bike, and loves technology. This summer she has been learning to play tennis.

Likes to skateboard, play soccer, basketball, and even cook occasionally. This summer he has spent a lot of time biking and skateboarding with his friends and brothers as they go explore the nearby park and creek to go fishing.
