Please also take a moment now to silence all electronic devices so that the Lord might have opportunity to freely speak to all.

Pentecost Sunday

Today, we celebrate the birthday of the Church – the day God's people were gathered, empowered, anointed and sent (Acts 2:1-4). The Holy Spirit is the promise of Christ to His disciples – the abiding presence of God within Christians who guides and empowers us to live lives that please Him and most powerfully impact our world. Just as Jesus was Immanuel—God with us—as He walked on earth, so we celebrate God's Holy Spirit with us today.
