Worship In Giving

One of the easiest ways to evaluate the seriousness of our own faith is to gauge our response when we're asked to give to the work of the Lord. If we get upset and defensive, there's a good chance that we're not giving as we should. Whether it is through the church or other good ministries, let's make sure that we're giving to the Lord with joy, because that is worship that's beautiful to Him.

Worship Guide

God welcomes us into His presence together; He inhabits the praise of His people. As we gather, please take a moment to ask God to prepare us—to open our ears and minds to His voice and to freely apply His word to our hearts and lives. Take this moment, too, to silence all electronic devices so that the Lord might have opportunity to freely speak to all.

Call To Worship A Contemporary Affirmation of Faith

We believe in Jesus Christ the Lord,
Who came in flesh to dwell among us,
Who died on the cross to free us from sin,
Who rose from the dead to give us life and hope,
Who reigns in heaven at the right hand of God,
Who comes one day soon to judge and bring justice and victory.

We believe in God, the Father,
Who created and sustains the universe,
Who rules over the destinies of all peoples and nations,
Who raised His Son Jesus from the dead,
Who desires all people to be saved.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
Who is God Himself, present in His people, the Church,
Who moves His Church to faith and obedience,
Who assists and guides all those whom He renews,
Who purifies the hearts of His own.

We believe God has made us His people,
To invite others to follow Jesus,
To encourage one another to deeper faith in Him,
To proclaim forgiveness of sins and hope,
To meet the daily tasks of life with love and purpose,
To suffer joyfully for the cause of right,
To the ends of the earth,
To the end of the age,
To the praise of His glory. Amen.
