

Pastor's Update, Saturday, April 17, 2021

Happy Saturday WFMC Family!

Link to Morning Worship Live-stream \(becomes live at 8:20a\)

Morning Worship: We continue with our "normal for now" Sunday schedule, with in-person worship gatherings at 8:30a and 11:00a, and Sunday school, and Youth and Adult Bible Fellowships at 9:45a. Inside the buildings on the church campus, please wear masks when you're within six feet of others and while singing.

A Special "Welcome Back" to the increasing number who have been vaccinated and are now comfortable returning to in-person worship. We are getting closer to our real, actual normal every week.

At-Home Worshippers will find a copy of the worship folder and songs attached / below.

The Funeral Service for Bob Bickert will be livestreamed at 11:00a today. Click here for that link.
