A Thought and Prayer for Good Friday (from Shivraj Mahendra)

Just as we have entered a season of sickness, suffering, and death, so will we also enter the season of wellness, resurrection, and rejoicing.

The crown (coronavirus) of loss and uncertainty will be transformed into the crown (glory) of victory at the shadow of the Cross. This is the story of this Holy Week. This is the message of the Life of Christ.

Let us pray: Eternal God, Our Creator and Sustainer: Thank you for the gift of life. Thank you for your mercies that are new every morning. Life and wellbeing are your amazing gifts.

Today we are surrounded by fear of a deadly virus. Heal our fear, give us faith. We declare that sickness and death are in Your control. We pray for healing and protection from Covid-19. We repent of the human causes that might have triggered it. We pray for Your divine grace for immunity for everyone around the world, and especially our community. We speak courage to those who are struggling and comfort to those who suffer or mourn.

Lord, help us to be instruments of healing and hope for our world!

In Christ's powerful name, Amen.

Paul's Words to the Philippian Church:

We remember that Jesus, who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage; rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature[b] of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death—even death on a cross!

Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue acknowledge that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. ~Philippians 2:6-11
